REGULARLY SCHEDULED BROADCAST

World Premiere of documentary film Rob is Analog at ALFF 2022

Whitehorse, Yukon. FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE.

Yukon made feature documentary film Rob is Analog will have its world premiere at the Available Light Film Festival's 20th anniversary starting February 12, 2022.

Rob is Analog tells the fantastic, unusual story and (mostly) true story of "Radio Rob" Hopkins, ex-hobo and self-taught broadcasting engineer. Rob is joined by fellow broadcasting enthusiast Bill Polonsky as they attempt to expand the reach of the local community radio station, CJUC 92.5 FM, and revive over-the-air analog television with the establishment of CKWH (channel 9 on your VHF dial).

This documentary was directed and produced by Yukon filmmaker Jessica Hall, and features local music from Garbage Man, Nicole Edwards, Kim Beggs, Jona Barr, Meat the Vegans and +-Standard Deviation. Along with online viewing, there will also be two in-person screenings at the Yukon Theatre (February 15 at 7:15 p.m. and February 21 at 8 p.m.).
